

A Shakespeare world premiere

The vienna theatre project (vtp) brings Shakespeare back to life by staging a "breath-taking, funny and witty" modern version of "Two Gentlemen of Verona". Young writers from "shakespeare project" transferred the play into a 21st century college setting and added Shakespeare and his muse. A must-see to find out more about the Bard.

Premiere on Wed, Nov 3 at Ensembletheater, starts 8 p.m.
